

The Gabriel Dumont Institute invites applications from the Métis community for the following volunteer role:

Southern Selection Committee Member, GDI Training & Employment

Gabriel Dumont Institute Training & Employment Inc. was established in 2006 to serve the Métis training and employment needs in Saskatchewan. GDI T & E falls under the parent umbrella organization, the Gabriel Dumont Institute of Native Studies and Applied Research.

Selection Committee members should possess the following: Métis ancestry with solid knowledge of Métis history and culture; knowledge, skills, and expertise in the area of training and employment; solid knowledge of labour market and training trends within the area of impact and be reputable, with a solid history of community service.

Members of the Southern Selection committee are responsible for allocating training funds based on established eligibility criteria and labour market information. Training will be provided to Selection Committee members and meetings will be held 7-8 times per year. Travel expenses are provided following GDI policies.
